Dear Parents and Carers

We have secured an opportunity for our students to attend a 'Talk for Change' by Margaret and Barry Mizen. Margaret and Barry's son was murdered in London by an act of violence on 10th May 2008 and their lives changed forever that day. Margaret and Barry will tell their story of pain and forgiveness. At St Joseph's we are committed to keeping our school a safe place by teaching our young people that violence is never acceptable and that the consequences of violence can be catastrophic.

Our PSA have agreed to fund this event so that our young people can learn from the mistakes that one young person made on that day in 2008. The talks will take place on Thursday 8th March at 9am for Year 9 and 10 and 10am for Year 7 and 8. Parents and carers are welcome to come and join us for this opportunity but due to limited capacity, we ask that if you would like to come along please book a place with the school office.

Many thanks

Mr T McCabe
