Dear Parent/Carer

Earlier this year as a school, we were privileged enough to listen during two assemblies delivered to Years 7-10 from Margaret and Barry Mizen, parents of Jimmy, who was murdered on the 10 May 2008.

Their message was both humbling and powerful for pupils and staff alike. All pupils in school have written a pledge to Jimmy about how they will avoid using violence in situations. Pupils also wanted to raise some money to support the 'Jimmy Mizen Foundation' so strong was the impact of the message.

Please find attached a letter from Margaret and Barry about the anniversary of Jimmy this Thursday 10 May. We as a school have decided to hold a 'non-uniform day' to raise money for the foundation to continue its work, this Thursday 10 May on the tenth anniversary of Jimmy's death.

We would request a £1 donation from pupils for the non-uniform day that will go directly to Jimmy Mizen Foundation. Our normal non-uniform rules must be adhered to regarding appropriateness of clothing.

Yours sincerely

M Singleton
