Dear Parent/Carer

All students in Year 10 will begin the study of 'Macbeth' by William Shakespeare for their GCSE English Literature. We have placed a bulk order of the set text as it is very useful to ensure every student is working from the same edition. Students in the past have reported that they found it is much easier to have their own copy as this enables them to annotate the texts and in doing so it becomes a valuable revision tool. It is hoped that most students buy the text from us as we are able to get these texts at discounted rates.

There are a range of study guides available to support your child's understanding of the play – these are available online or in most high street bookshop; at this point it in the course we would consider this an optional extra as the English Department will make a significant number of resources available.

The cost of the set text is £2 and this can be paid via your child's English teacher. We will begin studying this text after the Year 10 assessments. If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to get in touch.

Yours sincerely

K Boardman
