Gospel Values

The term 'Gospel values' is commonly used in Catholic schools and other Catholic institutions; however, unless the term is unpacked and a common understanding formed of what true Gospel values are, there is a danger that what should be an objective Christian foundation, will itself become a random list of subjective values.

Whilst other 'values' may be found within the four Gospels and New Testament writings, it is the Beatitudes which: "...depict the countenance of Jesus Christ and portray his charity". Gospel values cannot therefore be values chosen subjectively from the vast corpus of the Old and New Testaments but are objective values revealed to us through Christ's proclamation. Such objective values are to be found rooted in the Beatitudes, the proclamation of Christ's Sermon on the Mount. The Beatitudes also "...reveal the goal of human existence, the ultimate end of human acts" and as such are the objective 'values' given by Christ himself.

Whilst not definitive, those Gospel values based on the Beatitudes which underpin this policy include:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven"

Values: Faithfulness & Integrity

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied"

Values: Truth & Justice

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God"

Values: Purity & Holiness

Rooted in the teaching of Christ, these Gospel values constitute the targets and outcomes of the educational enterprise for St Joseph's as a Catholic school.

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 This document gives employees information about their rights covering:

- Eligibility for Ordinary and Additional Paternity Leave for births & adoptions;
- Ordinary and Additional Paternity Leave entitlement;
- Entitlement to pay.

2. EMPLOYMENT RIGHTS

2.1 Continuous service rights accrue during Ordinary and Additional Paternity Leave.

2.2 All contractual benefits, apart from remuneration, continue throughout Ordinary and Additional Paternity Leave. In accordance with HM Revenue and Customs guidance, non-cash benefits (such as childcare vouchers) will continue whereas cash benefits (such as first aid allowances) will not be paid. Essential car user allowance provided under the NJC for Local Government Services is not considered as simply cash that is a transferrable benefit (i.e. insurance, road tax etc) and therefore will continue to be paid.

2.3 An employee who returns at the end of Ordinary Paternity Leave is entitled to return to the same job on the same terms and conditions.

2.4 An employee who returns during or at the end of Additional Paternity Leave, has the right to return to the same job on the same terms and conditions, or, if this is not reasonably practicable (for a reason other than redundancy) to a job that is both suitable and appropriate for the employee. The new job must itself be on terms and conditions no less favourable than those which would have applied had the employee not been absent.

2.5 Should a redundancy situation arise during additional paternity leave, the employee must be consulted, along with other employees in the team. Managers should be aware that, under the Additional Paternity Leave Regulations 2010, employees who are on additional paternity leave and who are made redundant have the right to an offer of a suitable alternative post, where one is available, without competition, even if there are other suitably qualified or better qualified candidates.

3. ORDINARY PATERNITY LEAVE

3.1 Ordinary Paternity Leave is to be used to support a child's mother or adopter or care for the child at or around the time of the birth or placing.

3.2 A Head Teacher (or Chair of Governors if the Head Teacher is the employee) may request evidence of an employee's eligibility for Ordinary Paternity Leave.

Entitlement

- 3.3 Eligible employees are entitled to either one week or two consecutive weeks' Ordinary Paternity Leave. The leave cannot be taken in odd days or as non consecutive weeks.
- 3.4 An employee is only entitled to one period of Ordinary Paternity Leave regardless of the number of children born as a result of a pregnancy, or adopted under the same adoption arrangement.

Eligibility for Ordinary Paternity Leave

- 3.5 To qualify for Ordinary Paternity Leave, employees must:
- Have been employed continuously by their employer for 26 weeks ending with the 15th week before the date the baby is due or, in the case of adoption, the date the adopted child is expected to be placed.
 - Be the biological father of the child or the mother's husband, partner or civil partner or, in the case of adoption, be married to, the partner of or civil partner of the child's adopter.
 - Have, or expect to have, responsibility for the child's upbringing.
- 3.6 The one or two week block of Ordinary Paternity Leave can start on any day of the week and can be taken from the date of the child's birth or adoption placement.
- 3.7 The Ordinary Paternity Leave must be completed within 56 days of the date of the child's birth or adoption placement.
